Dear Mr. Iversen:

This letter is in response to your request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (DON-USMC-2020-009359) requesting documents any and all records that describe the non-judicial punishment (NJP) of MARSOC members in connection to a May 3, 4 or 6, 2017 incident involving Navy SEALs and the corpse of an ISIS fighter.

There were no responsive documents found under MARSOC's control that pertained to your request.

If you have any questions, please contact me at

You have the right to an appeal. It must be received within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. Please provide a letter requesting an appeal, with a copy of your initial request and a copy of the letter of denial, in an envelope marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." You are encouraged (though not required) to provide an explanation why you believe the redactions were inappropriate or our search was inadequate. Also, please provide a copy of your appeal letter to us at Marine Forces Special Operations Command. To ensure that your request is received by the deadline, I recommend that you make your appeal by using FOIAonline. To do so, go to FOIAonline, locate your original request (enter a keyword or the tracking number of the request in the "Search for" field on the "Search" tab), click on the request, and then click on the "Create Appeal" tab in the left-hand column. The basic information from your request will be duplicated for you, and you can type in the basis of your appeal.

Alternatively, you may mail your appeal to:

- a. The Judge Advocate General (Code 14)
